

2023 RFISD Education Foundation
'Tis the Season Fundraiser
Silent Auction Donation Form

We are excited to celebrate the 22nd annual RFISD Education Foundation's holiday fundraiser, "Tis the Season", featuring the Corpus Christi Symphony Orchestra and the Rockport-Fulton High School Chorale. This memorable event will be held on December 10th, 2023, beginning with a delightful concert at the Martha Luigi Auditorium, followed by a welcoming reception for sponsors and their guests at the Rockport Center for the Arts.

Included in the event will be a new silent auction fundraiser, which will be hosted online this year. The event aims to raise funds for our RFISD Education Foundation, enabling us to provide scholarships, educational resources, and essential support to deserving students in our community. To make this event a success, we are seeking donations that can be auctioned online. These items will be showcased on our event website, which will also allow our community members to view and bid on them from the comfort of their homes.

By contributing to our silent auction, you will not only be showcasing your products to a wide online audience but also playing a significant role in supporting education in our community. We kindly request you consider donating items such as unique products, exclusive services, event tickets, vacation packages, artwork, or any other valuable items that you believe our community members would be interested in bidding on. Your generosity will be acknowledged on our event website and social media platforms, ensuring that your organization receives the recognition it deserves.

If you are interested in contributing to our silent auction, please fill out the attached donation form or contact us at 361.960.2090 or rfeducationfoundation@gmail.com to arrange for item pickup or to discuss the details further. Your support is invaluable to us, and we sincerely appreciate your consideration of this request.

Thank you for your time and commitment to supporting education in our community. Together, we can make a significant difference in the lives of our RFISD students!

Thank you for all you do,

The Board of Directors
